What are 'cookies'?

'Cookies' are ways of saving a small amount of user information. The actual cookie is a small file of letters and numbers placed by a website onto a user's computer / device when he or she accesses the website.

How do we use cookies?

We use cookies to better tailor the Site and our products to your interests and needs. Cookies may also be used to help speed up your future activities or to improve your user experience by remembering the information you have already provided to us. We do not use cookies to retrieve information from your computer that was not voluntarily provided by you (i.e., during registration or a competition). The use of cookies is an industry standard, and you will find them at most sites. Most browsers are initially set up to accept cookies. However, you can set your browser to refuse cookies or to alert you when cookies are being sent so that you can flush them from your browser if you object to their presence.
